18th CENTURY STOMACHER DECORATION Saturday 25th JULY

1-Day Course - 25th June from 10am to 6pm

The small scale of these garments meant that they were often richly embellished. The stomachers in the School's and the Hopkins Collection, some of which are surveyed in 'Patterns of Fashion 6', will be studied during the class, and small samples of the varied embroidery techniques worked.

TAILORING STITCHES & TECHNIQUES c.1400-1800 9th & 10th JULY

2-Day Course - from 10am to 6pm

This course will cover the evolution of tailoring and students will work samplers of key techniques from each century, such as buttonholes, seam construction and padding.

Surviving 16th, 17th and 18th century garments and 15th century textiles that employed tailoring techniques, all from the School Collection, will be available for close examination. These include the early 18th century figured velvet coat shown below.

Colour images from the Janet Arnold Archive of earlier garments will also be used as references.

GOWNS AT THE COURT OF HENRY VIII 23rd & 24th JULY

2-Day Course - from 10am to 6pm

Both long and short gowns were some of the most spectacular outer garments worn by Henry VIII and his courtiers, made of luxurious textiles and furs.

Students will be able to experience pattern-making for such gowns and make a small-scale version of several, in paper and fabric.

Extant textiles and reconstructed gowns from the School Collection will be available for close examination.

Tutors - Maria Hayward & Jenny Tiramani

THE NATURE OF WOVEN TEXTILES FOR GARMENTS c.1600-1800

30th & 31st JULY

2-Day Course - from 10am to 6pm

This course will introduce students to the various types of woven textiles used both on the inside and outside of the garments worn by men and women of different social classes.

The nature of the textiles' fibres, weaves and colours will be covered in the classroom with the aid of extant garments and textile pieces from the School collections.

Students will produce sample books of modern fibres and machine-woven textiles that represent the various techniques used in textiles of c.1600-1800.

£210 full price / £150 concession price

Tutor - Jenny Tiramani
